New Century Publications, New Delhi, 1998. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. 14 cms. 216pp. This book provides a detailed description and analysis of the evolution and the present nature of fiscal federalism in India. It examines the existing arrangements for intergovernmental financial transfers, the role of Finance Commission and the Planning Commission in effecting these transfers, particularly the principles followed by these agencies to reduce vertical and horizontal imbalances in the availability of resources to various tiers of government in India. Current problems and controversies besetting Centre-State financial relations are highlighted from various viewpoints.
