How the hours flew as we wandered along the beach, picking up pebbles, and plucking wild flowers from every sacred spot. Many wild ducks, geese, pelicans, and other water-fowl, were swimming about on its surface, and in the neighboring jungle, at night, could be heard the howl of the wolf or cry of the panther, jackal, and leopard, fulfilling most literally the prophecies concerning this land.1 - If these prophecies had been written yesterday, they could not more correctly and graphically describe the present condition of this sea and its surroundings. Every prediction has become an historic fact. And in the ruins of the cities that once stood upon its shores we have an argument in support of the divine record that all the ingenuity of...
