Doolittle, of Wisconsin; In the United States Senate, February 24, 1860 And the Democratic platform made at Cincinnati, in its eighth resolution, declares: That the Democratic party will faithfully abide by and uphold the principles laid down in the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of 1798, and in the report of Mr. Madison to the Virginia Legislature in 1799; that it adopts those principles as constituting one of the main foundations of its political creed, and is resolved to carry them out in their obvious meaning and import. Again, sir: I hold in my hand a volume which contains a decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in 1798, in which this question was discussed and decided. The chief justice, delivering the unanimous opinion of the court, used the following language: The divisions of power between the National, Federal, and State Governments, (all derived from the same source, the authority of the people, ) must be collected from the Constitution of the United States. Before it..
