THE ATTITUDE OP THE CHURCH TOWARD SOCIAL QUESTIONS. By James A. Young. Mr. President, Citizens, Delegates and Friends: We have listened to the welcomes of the good people of Delaware with a sense of deep satisfaction. They have been generous, friendly, cordial. We shall feel at home during our stay in your city; and we hope you will feel as warm an interest in our work and our deliberations, as you have expressed in your welcome. It is a red letter day for Delaware, when her great University takes up the study of sociology, welcomes the Ohio State Conference of Charities and Correction at the same time, and joins in its study of social questions and its work of practical philanthropy. It is an honor to any city of Ohio to have the privilege of entertaining this Conference; and you have honored this Conference by your invitation and your cordial welcome. It is with a feeling of real pleasure, that I accept your welcome, and thank you in the name of this Fifth Annual Conference for your generous reception. It is with pleasure, also, and with a keen sense of responsibility, that I express my appreciation of being chosen to preside over the deliberations of this Conference. I shall strive to be fair and just, and shall see to it, that the business sessions begin on time. ADDRESS. This is an age of unrest, of turbulence, of discontent. It is not merely...
