Not illustrated. 1865 Excerpt: .might steadfastly set his face in the right way, and say to his God, My Father, be Thou the guide of my youth. I would have every boy, who reads my story, think how soon the thread which keeps them in life may be snapped asunder; and I would have every parent consider what a safeguard the principle of unquestioning obedience and respect to elders and superiors is, when once thoroughly implanted in the child s heart. Had poor Harry and Bessie been taught this, they would have listened to their uncle s Voice instead of leaving his house with the express purpose of doing what they were forbidden to do; and if Bessie had had the right influence over her young brother, she would have prevented his disobeying his uncle s wishes, and good-temperedly tried to turn his thoughts in another direction. It may seem...
