Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Lectures on Discipline and Training I am going to read a telegram received by our Embassy at Washington on the 1st of January: From the Russian front: The troops have left their trenches. The artillery is being sold. Officers are serving as cooks and orderlies. This, gentlemen, is the information that is received from the great army that saved the Allies in 1914 and 1915. This is the only Ally that has ever successfully attacked our enemy, the Germans, and penetrated into German territory, and at a time when they were weaker than the forces that were attacking them, in arms and in numbers. Why - why has this occurred? This was brought about by the attempt on the part of the Russian people to overthrow the German influence which had penetrated into the court of the Czar. Not to overthrow the Czar in the midst of war so much because he was the Czar, but because he was in the hands of a large number of Germans who were carrying out German propaganda, and for that purpose and that purpose only did they overthrow the Czar. They overthrew their government only for the purpose of making war more successfully against the German people. What was the first mistake they made? The Soldier s and Workman s Congress passed this resolution: The men will not in future salute officers. Now isn t that a trifle? Yet that trifle has led to the telegram that reads, The troops have left the trenches. The artillery is being sold. Officers are serving as cooks and orderlies. Gentlemen, you have a very heavy duty to perform. You have to...
