Congressional Sales Office, 2003. OCLC Number: (OCO)51721469 Subject: Computers -- Access control -- China. Excerpt: ... 11 nology, and we have not even started version one of a counter-strategy yet. If we do not do something soon, they may be able to close off the country completely and obtain absolute control of their net before we can do anything about it. A fair guess is that, by the Olympics in 2008, it will be much too late to act. Our window of opportunity is now, at this moment. The U. S. Government is the only organization that has the power to mount an effective counter against this type of censorship. Independent efforts, such as mine, by volunteer groups will be ad hoc and there will be no coordination between the releases of the various projects. A well-funded, centralized program could plan application releases so they occur at regular intervals in order to keep the Chinese authorities constantly scrambling to keep up....
