Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you know somebody who has a deployed loved one? Perhaps your own family is trying to make sense of life after having a family member return from Iraq or Afghanistan. Roby Dean-Blest, an adult child of Vietnam veteran, Chuck Dean, creates a unique, school-age children s story addressing the complicated issues of wartime PTSD, -Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Often, kids cannot understand the volatile emotions they experience during the long months of waiting and wondering.finally coming to a head with the return of their veteran. -Then the real adjustment period begins. Written as a tool for military personnel and their families, Simon bridges the gap for readers who may be experiencing their own delayed stress symptoms, confusion or lack of coping skills to deal with the aftermath of their Homecoming.
