OCLC Number: (OCOlc)48763847 Subject: Bombings -- Prevention -- International cooperation. Excerpt: . . . 15 Cole triggered both international condemnation and multinational cooperation in bringing the perpetrators to justice. The earlier attacks against the United States and other targets prompted the development of the Terrorist Bombings Convention. The Convention for the Suppression of Financing of Terrorism is a part of the effort to starve terrorist groups of their lifeblood, their financial support. The Convention criminalizes financial support for the terrorist activities of groups such as al-Qaida. It supplements our existing network of laws, executive orders, U. N. Security Council resolutions, and other international efforts to deprive terrorists of the assets they need to pursue their deadly work. Ratification of the two Conventions before the Senate is important to our overall counterterrorism strategy and the Presidents campaign against terrorism that has taken shape since the attacks on the United States on the 11th of September. We are urging countries to ratify and implement all 12 of the International Terrorism Conventions if they have not...
