Excerpt: . . . of the inhabitants of the western coast of America. Human sacrifices are also very frequently offered, so that scarce a week elapses without instances of this kind. They are in general poor, barbarous, naked pagans, as destitute of civilization, as they are of true religion. Secondly, Barbarous as these poor heathens are, they appear to be as capable of knowledge as we are; and in many places, at least, have discovered uncommon genius and tractableness; and I greatly question whether most of the barbarities, practised by them, have not originated in some real or supposed affront, and are therefore, more properly, acts of self-defence, than proof of inhuman and bloodthirsty dispositions. Thirdly, In other parts, where they have a written language, as in the East Indies, China, Japan, Sec. they know no thing of the gospel. The Jesuits indeed once made many converts...
