Robert remained mesmerized in his revolving seat, his eyes fixed on the monitor screen which turned dark blue. He could feel his brain filled with a low buzzing noise. Then suddenly the screen turned black with lot of white spots; stars. His mind was travelling through outer space! He could see the far galaxies, faraway stars and worlds just like coronations on a Christmas tree. Then after five minutes, a planet full of lights, streets and high rise buildings was visible to the eyes. Inside that crowded city, He could see how he was flown into a large conference hall. Some two hundred Chef Guardians of all shapes and races were gathered in that room. Each Guardian was provided with a head phone to receive the speeches in his or her language. At the front stage; a panel of ten Overseers was gathered. X1 was at the middle and was the first to speak, - I welcome you, all two hundred Chef Guardians of our Galaxy. You have been chosen to represent the Galaxy in...
